

Part 1: The Anchor Facts of American History

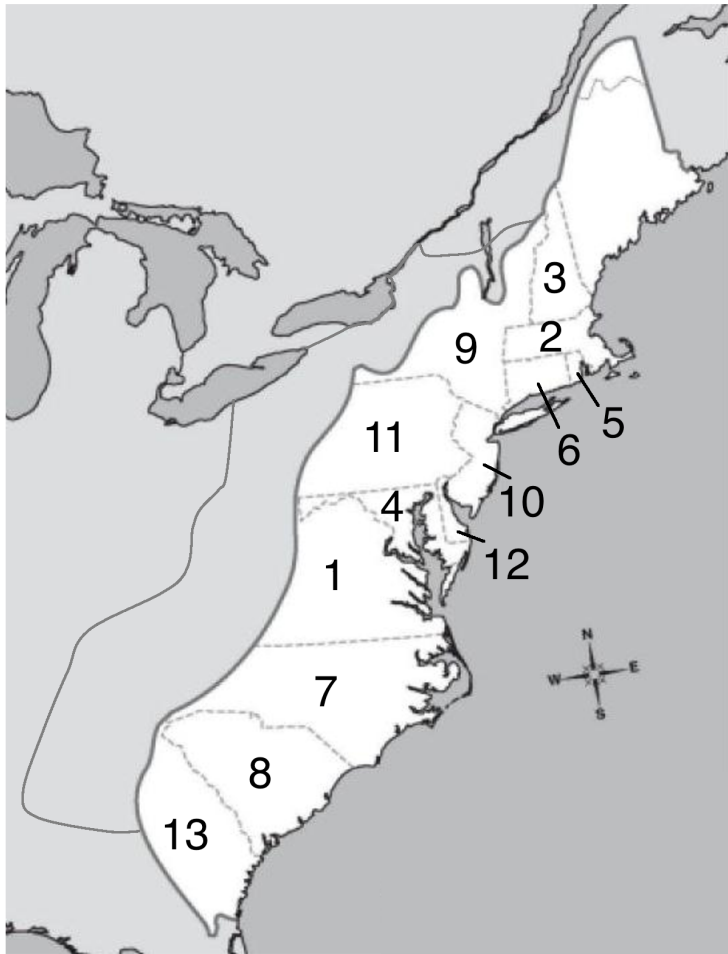

1. Which of the anchor facts from history we have studied are most useful for understanding the principle of the peace of Augsburg of 1555 - "cuius regio, eius religio"?

2. Why are the settlements of Jamestown (1607) and Plymouth (1620) anchor facts of American history?

3. Use two anchor facts to complete this sentence: "There could be no United States of America without..." (Write out the complete sentence using two anchor facts. Be sure to include the dates.)

4. How can an event from c.3000 BC such as the unification of Egypt by Menes/Narmer be a present-centric fact?! What does this mean? Choose another anchor fact that strengthens the present-centric value of 3000 BC, and explain how.

Part 2: Geography

5. Write the names of the thirteen American colonies, which are numbered on the map in the order they were established:

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____
- 4) _____
- 5) _____
- 6) _____
- 7) _____
- 8) _____
- 9) _____
- 10) _____
- 11) _____
- 12) _____
- 13) _____

Part 3: Colonization

6. How did Europeans mainly think of America before colonization? What did Richard Hakluyt say to change their minds?

7. What were “headrights”? How did they apply to colonists and colonizers, and how were they used to specifically to allow Virginia to succeed as a commercial colony?

8. What was the second successful English settlement in America? What was the reason it was settled?

9. Explain why it is incorrect to say the Puritans/Pilgrims came to America for religious freedom. (How did they treat people of different beliefs in their community?) Gives examples to support your interpretation.

10. What is “toleration”? What two early American colonies has religious toleration? What is the relationship between religious toleration and religious freedom?

Part 4: The Colonial Wars and the Prelude to the American Revolution

11. What happened after King William’s War, Queen Anne’s War, and King George’s War? Why is the French & Indian War much more important than these previous wars?

12. What is “constitutional monarchy,” and by what two major advances did it begin in England?

Part 5: Bonus

13. What city in Maryland is named after an Irish lord?

14. After whom is Pennsylvania named?

15. What phrase means “the way things were before the war”?
