

Part 1: The Anchor Facts of American History

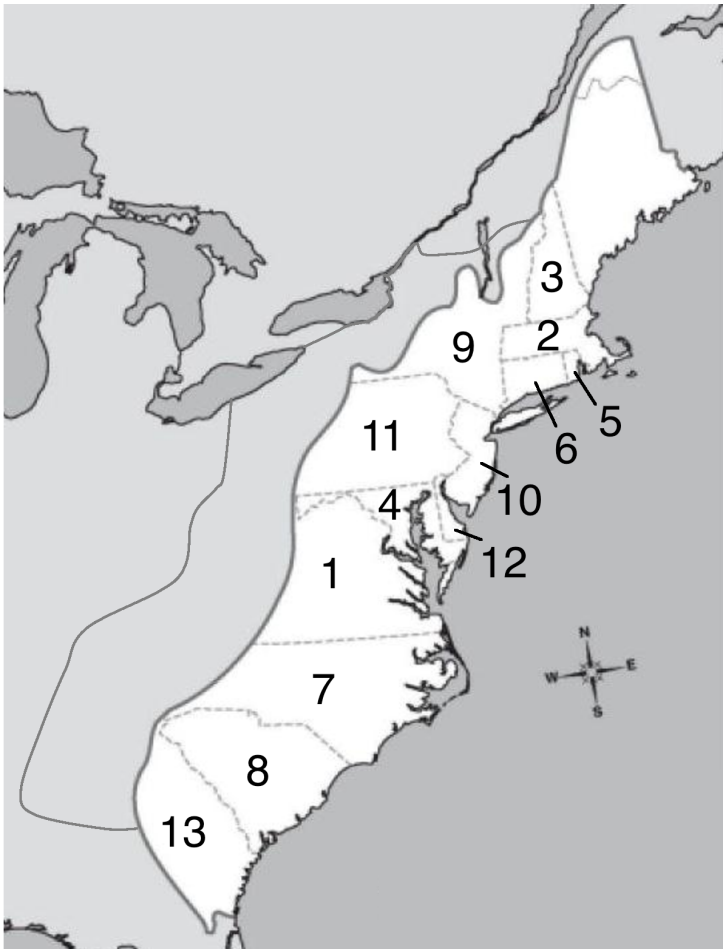

1. How do the anchor facts from 3000 BC and c.4 BC help us to understand the idea of the peace of Augsburg of 1555 - "cuius regio, eius religio"?

2. Why are the settlements of Jamestown (1607) and Plymouth (1620) anchor facts of American history? (What do they help us to understand about the world today?)

3. Use two anchor facts to complete this sentence: "There could be no United States of America without..." (Write out the complete sentence using two anchor facts. Be sure to include the dates.)

Part 2: Geography

4. Explain the route of French colonization through North America from Quebec to Louisiana.

6. Write the names of the thirteen American colonies, which are numbered on the map in the order they were established:

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____
- 4) _____
- 5) _____
- 6) _____
- 7) _____
- 8) _____
- 9) _____
- 10) _____
- 11) _____
- 12) _____
- 13) _____

Part 3: Colonization

7. Who wrote the “Discourse on Western Planting,” and what was its main argument for colonization?

8. What was a “headright”? What colony was successful because of headrights?

9. What was the second successful English settlement in America? What was the reason it was settled?

10. Explain why it is incorrect to say the Puritans/Pilgrims came to America for religious freedom. (How did they treat people of different beliefs in their community?)

11. What is “toleration”? What two early American colonies has religious toleration?

Part 4: The Colonial Wars and the Prelude to the American Revolution

12. What happened after King William’s War, Queen Anne’s War, and King George’s War? Why is the French & Indian War much more important than these previous wars?

13. What is the Magna Carta? What kind of government was created by it?

Part 5: Bonus

14. What city in Maryland is named after an Irish lord?

15. After whom is Pennsylvania named?

16. What phrase means “the way things were before the war”?
