

Part 1: Anchor Fact TimeLine

1. Use the diagram to answer the questions below:

Dates

- a) _____
- b) _____
- c) _____
- d) _____
- e) _____
- f) _____
- g) _____

Events

- 1607/8: _____
- 1756-63: _____
- c.1764/9: _____
- 1787/9: _____
- 1964/5: _____
- 1993: _____
- 1861-5: _____

Part 2: Periods of American History

2. When James Monroe lived what was the level of technology, America's form of government, and its relationship to the world?

3. Thomas Edison invented the lightbulb c.1879. What was America's level of technology, its form of government, and its relationship to the world at that time?

Part 3: Responses to Industrialism

4. What are people called who don't want to feel like machines by working too much with machines?

5. If you don't want to only pursue material values, but believe in something "more" or "higher," what are you?

6. What is someone called who wants to keep nature untouched because he believes humans should not touch it at all?

Part 4: Contemporary History

7. What does “contemporary” mean? What is a common contemporary anti-industrial view of industrialism?

8. What would a smartphone look like today, if progress in computing had been the same as in nuclear power or space exploration?

Part 5: Bonus

9. What organization did the preservationist John Muir create?

10. What organization did the conservationist Theodore Roosevelt create?

11. What was the last important pre-industrial invention (just before the Steam Engine)?
