

Part 1: Japan Today and The Cardinal Anchor Facts

1. What is Japan's rank among industrial/trading nations? What is its rank as a military power? Why then is it not a cardinal culture in the world today? What is happening to Japan's population today?

2. Draw a diagram of the three periods of Japanese history. Label the lines, and label the diagram with the dates of the three cardinal anchor facts of Japanese history.

Part 2: Isolated Japan

3. When does Japanese history begin, according to Japanese tradition? What does Japanese religion say about Japan's emperors?

4. What three things did Japan accept from China? What could it not accept from Europeans?

5. How was Japan's isolation broken?

Part 3: Imperial Japan

6. Where did Japan begin building its empire? Who did it have to fight to win control of that county, and in what war?

Part 4: Post-Imperial Japan

7. What two Americans are most responsible for shaping Japan's post-imperial culture, and how?
