UE Test: Japan (Level 2)

Part 1: Japan Today	and The Cardinal Anchor Facts
---------------------	-------------------------------

I. What is Japan's rank among industrial/trading nations? What is it rank as a military power? Why then is it not a cardinal culture in the world today? What is happening to Japan's population that shows that it is an insular culture?
	_
	•
	•
	•

2. Draw a diagram of the three periods of Japanese history. Label the segments, and label the diagram with the dates of the three cardinal anchor facts and the additional three major anchor facts of Japanese history.

UE Test: Japan (Level 2) Asia, Africa, and the World We Live In Test Prep Sheets - Page 2 Part 2: Isolated Japan 3. When does Japanese history begin, according to Japanese tradition? How is Japanese government connected to Japanese religion? 4. What three things did Japan accept from China? What could it not accept from Europeans? 5. How was Japan's isolation broken? Part 3: Imperial Japan 6. How does it make sense that a country that wants to be isolated would build an empire?

DE Test. Japan (Level 2)	Asia, Allica	i, and the world we Liv	ve III	Test Piep Sheets - Page 3
7. Where did Japan begin buildin what war?	g its empire? \	Who did it have to figh	t to win control	of that county, and in
Part 4: Post-Imperial Japan
3. What two Americans are most	responsible for	r shaping Japan's post-u	imperial culture	, and how?