

Part 1: Geography and World History

1. Label the countries indicated on the map below:

- a) Nigeria (1 pt)
- b) Democratic Republic of Congo (1 pt)
- c) Ethiopia (1 pt)
- d) Kenya (1 pt)
- e) South Africa (1 pt)
- f) Madagascar (1 pt)

2. Draw a timeline diagram of 1) Europe and Africa, and 2) Islamic Culture and South Asia. Label the periods with titles that clearly indicate the meaning of each period in history, and label the anchor facts of African history. Do not abbreviate as we do in our daily practice. Show the connections between Islamic culture and South Asia AND between Europe and Africa. Using a ruler could help you make it as neat as possible.

Period names and lines: 4 points Labeled Cultures: 2 points Anchor Facts: 6 pts Total Points This Page: 18 pts

Part 2: African History

3. What is a post-colonial culture? What kind of culture was Africa before the European arrival that makes it post-colonial today?

A post-colonial culture is one that used to be inside of someone else's empire, and now is struggling to create its own identity. Africa is post-colonial because it was tribal and a-historical before the European arrival. (3 pts: 1 pt for definition; 1 pt for a-historical; 1 pt for spelling and grammar)

Part 3: European Domination

4. Why didn't Portugal's king want to help Columbus with his idea of reaching Asia by sailing west?

Portugal's king rejected the plan of Christopher Columbus to sail west to Asia, because Bartolomeu Dias had already discovered the bottom of Africa, and the eastern route was thus assured. (2 pts: 1 pt for success of Portuguese eastern route; 1 pt for spelling and grammar)

5. During what phase of African history was Africa depopulated? How?

Africa was depopulated during the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade. It lost much of its population because slaves were taken to the Americas. (3 pts: 1 pt for Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade; 1 pt for Americas; 1 pt for spelling and grammar)

6. What are two reasons for the Scramble for Africa?

The Scramble for Africa happened because the European empires had already claimed every other part of the world that could not resist them. It also happened when and how it did because of the rise of the German Empire. Once Germany became powerful and tried to take over Africa, the other European powers needed to "scramble" to prevent Germany from taking it all! (3 pts: 1 pt for last remaining area; 1 pt for Germany; 1 pt for spelling and grammar)

Total Points This Page: 11 pts

Part 4: Independence and Post-Colonial Africa

8. What is “detrribalization”? Why aren’t there any countries in Africa where people speak German?

Detribalization is a process of change where people lose their tribal way of life. In Africa this meant being forced to have a European way of life, but Germany did not get to impose its own way because it lost World War I and its colonies were taken by France and England. (3 pts: 1 pt for loss of tribalism; 1 pt for Germany losing WWI; 1 pt for spelling and grammar)

9. What is Francization? Why did it fail in Algeria? What process was triggered throughout Sub-Saharan Africa because of that failure?

Francization is the process of transformation a colony into a French culture—basically, to make people French. It failed in Algeria because of the refusal of Islamic culture to be part of France. When Algeria fought its war of independence that triggered decolonization in Sub-Saharan Africa—the “year of Africa” (1960). (4 pts: 1 pt for France; 1pt Islamic resistance; 1 pt for decolonization; 1 pt for spelling and grammar)

10. What cardinal culture is most important in Africa today, and why?

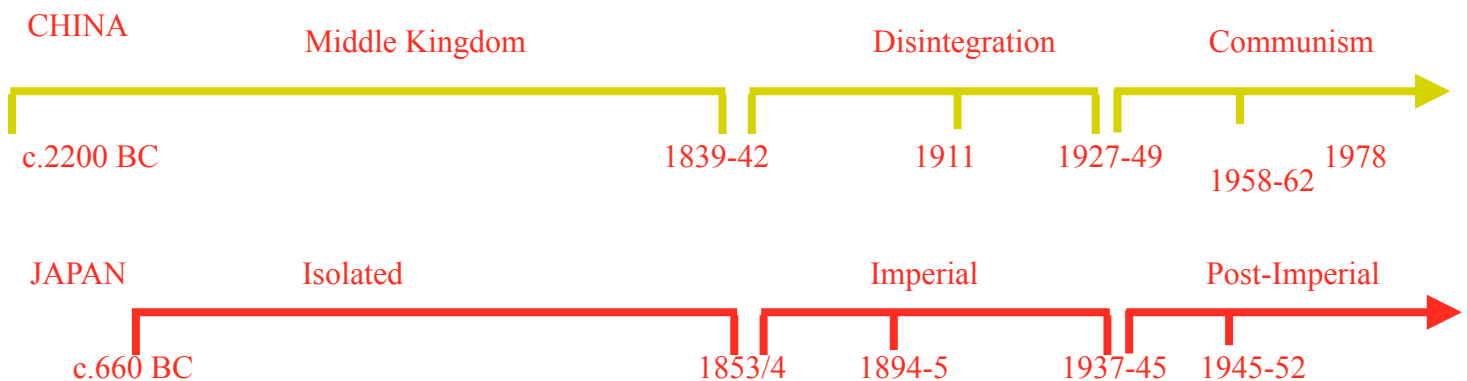

The most important cardinal culture in Africa is China. China is a culture that also suffered because of Europe, and now seems successful, so Africa is hopeful that a China will help it succeed as well.

(3 pts: 1 pt for China; 1 pt for common history and China’s success; 1 pt for spelling and grammar)

Total Points This Page: 10 pts
