

Part 3: The History of the American Social Contract

3. What is a “social contract”? Give examples of moral, economic, and technological ways in which people act that reflect the contemporary social contract.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

4. When politicians try to get elected, they appeal to voters by proposing a social contract. Give examples of the two most recent presidents, and how they did that.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

5. The original American social contract is captured by three fundamental documents. What are they, and what do each of them contribute to the original social contract?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

