

Part 1: Timeline

1. Fill in the given timeline of ancient, European, Russian and American history with dates, descriptions of the events, and chapter/period names. Use abbreviations to fit everything on the diagram, but be sure to explain them elsewhere on the page. (Descriptions should be just a few words — NOT complete sentences.)

Part 2: America up to the World Wars

2. What are the two most important milestones in America becoming politically separate from Europe?

3. Why did Woodrow Wilson say that American should end its political separation? How did Americans respond after they had fought in World War I?

4. What does “unconditional surrender” mean? What else did American leaders decide to do to the Nazi leaders after World War II after they had surrendered?

Part 4: Europe and Russia in the America-Centric World

5. What did the Truman Doctrine say? How did Russia test America’s willingness to actually do it, and what did America do?

6. What great accomplishments in the space race showed that Russia was a cardinal culture? How did America do even better?

7. What is the United States of today?
